

The Welcome Co-op is a unique cooperative of the Atlanta-area refugee resettlement agencies: New American Pathways, The International Rescue Committee, Catholic Charities Atlanta, and Inspiritus. These non-profit agencies work under contract with the U.S. Department of State to provide initial services to refugees after they arrive.

Refugees have fled persecution in their own countries and have been invited to live and work in the U.S. Every year, the Welcome Co-op sets up hundreds of welcoming homes for refugees from around the world including Afghanistan, Burma, Congo, Sudan, Syria, and Ukraine. We also run the Shop of Hope, a special store offering quality clothing and shoes to refugees, free of charge.

You can get involved by:

- Volunteering to help with home setups or at the Shop of Hope
- Collecting materials and assembling welcome kits for new refugees
- Donating household furnishings and other items
- Financially supporting our work
