FIND YOUR PLACE

Welcome to the new edition of the “Find Your Place” catalog.

This updated catalog is designed to help you connect with our community, engage in the life of the church, and use your unique talents to serve others. Whether you are new to FPC Marietta or have been a part of our family for years, this resource is for you.

Inside, you will find details on our various activities and ministries, along with contact information for each group leader. All of the information in this catalog is also available online at fpcmarietta.org/find-your-place.

God is building something beautiful at FPC, and there is a place here for everyone including you.

John Ficken
Co-Chair, FPC Engagement Committee

Scott Suhr
Co-Chair, FPC Engagement Committee

SPIRITUAL GIFTS ASSESSMENT

DISCOVER YOUR GIFTS. FIND YOUR PLACE.

The pages of this catalog are filled with opportunities to engage and serve. But to decide the best fit for you, where do you start? Well, a good place is our Spiritual Gifts Assessment, an online tool designed to help you identify your gifts, strengths, and interests, and how best to use them.

God has uniquely gifted you for one or more of the activities and ministries within these pages.

Use this quick and easy tool.
Visit fpcmarietta.org/assessment-brochure or scan the QR code to help find your place.

LIVES ARE CHANGING

Thank you for picking up our engagement catalog! The following pages are your guide to take full advantage of the opportunities available at First Presbyterian Church.

Having your name on the membership roll of a church and living as a disciple of Jesus Christ are not necessarily the same thing.

Historically, the Presbyterian Church has empowered people, not to sit on the sidelines or to watch church happen, but to put their faith into action. By taking the active step to get more involved, our lives are changed with faith, hope, and love.

I've seen it happen again and again. From the members of the choir to the volunteers in the sound booth, those who find a way to express their faith through service are richly blessed. Please use this issue to find your place, put your faith into action, and make a difference.

Rev. Dr. Joe Evans, Senior Pastor
